

Week 1
In The Church

The Family Business

What Must Be Taught to Various Groups

Titus 2 You must teach what is in accord with sound doctrine. ² Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance.

³ Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good. ⁴ Then they can train the younger women to love their husbands and children, ⁵ to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, so that no one will malign the word of God.

⁶ Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled. ⁷ In everything set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness ⁸ and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

Daily Devotional

This weeks devotion is from the New Testament book of John. Read one chapter each day and answer the questions to the right. This is called inductive Bible study and whole book study. If you have any questions or need any help along the way, feel free to email:

How to get the most from studying your Bible:

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

When you read the Bible, God has provided it to do the 4 things italicized above in your life. So, when you read a passage answer these four questions and journal your answers:

TEACHING: What is the story of this passage, or what is it about?

REBUKING: How is this passage challenging me, my actions, thoughts or behaviors?

CORRECTING: What life adjustment is this passage suggesting for me?

TRAINING: What should this passage produce in my life and service?
